

Princeton Splash!

Explore new subjects through workshops led by Princeton University students!

All high school students (grades 9–12) are welcome!

Date: Saturday, April 29 10am-5pm

Location: Princeton University

Admission Fee: $10 (financial aid available)

Details:

Classes will be held in small classrooms in various buildings on campus. Students select their own courses by signing up online (first-come, first-served). The admission fee is for the entire day, regardless of the number of workshops taken.

Sign up at princeton.learningu.org

Deadline: 5pm on April 27

Improv 101 • Speedreading • Protein Folding • Machine Learning • ASL • Cryptography • Dance • Visual Programming • Intro to Russian • Hands-on Electrical Engineering • Theater • Imperial China • Sustainable Energy • Security and Privacy in the Digital Age • Japanese Drumming • App Development • Egyptian Mythology • Math in Neuroscience • Design Thinking • Effective Altruism • Fractals • Black Holes • and more!