

Autism Awareness Sponsors “Restaurant Night Out”

Please mark you calendars for April 30, 2015, as The Princeton Autism Awareness Association--a student activist group sponsored by Princeton University's Pace Center for Civic Engagement--has organized "Restaurant Night Out", an evening to allow families with autistic children to feel comfortable enjoying a dinner out in the Princeton township. Although Princeton is always a tolerant community, Restaurant Night Out is an initiative being led by several prominent Princeton eateries, to ensure its patrons with autistic children that the whole family is welcome to eat in an environment free from the judgment of other customers. On the evening of April 30, Princeton restaurants will be posting a message in their doors, pledging their support for autism awareness, and requesting patrons to be tolerant--for that evening and onwards. Participating restaurants will include:

30 Burgers
Cheeburger Cheeburger
Chez Alice
Ivy Inn
Jammin' Crepes
La Mezzaluna
Massimo's
Mehek
Tiger Noodles
Tomo Sushi

Princeton Autism Awareness Association and our partnering restaurants look forward to welcoming you and your entire family to dinner out on Nassau Street and Palmer Square on the 30th, whether it be for a quick bite or a sit-down meal!
